Genoa Communists Balk.

The tension has increased near Genoa where, at Sestri Poneste (four miles from Genoa), a labor leader has issued a declaration on behalf of the Communists there that any accord reached with-out their consent would not be accepted. and, above all, the plants which they have occupied would not be restored to the owners. Florence, which was, relatively speak-

A strong effort is being made mean-while to cause a schism 'n the ranks of labor, charges of treachery having been raised against the directors of the Goueral Federation of Labor who have yielded to Premier Giolitti's persuation. Along the Riviera the situation is neet, several factory groups having igned the General Federation of Labor greement to abandon the plants they

VATICAN HAS NO WORD OF TURKISH LEGATION

Sultan May Send Minister for First Time in History.

ROME, Sept. 22 .- Vatican officials relying to reports from Constantinople eclare that no communication has been received from the Ottoman Government with reference to the establishment of a Turkish legation at Rome

A Constantinople despatch of Septem er I said Turkey would send a Minis ter to the Vatican, the step, it was announced, being taken on the Bultan's litiative as a mark of gratitude for the ope's financial and other aid to the furkish war prisoners. It was pointed out that this was the first time Islam

It was further stated that before the Minister was sent to Rome the Vatican would be asked if he would be received.

THE HAGUE, Sept. 22 .- Proposals that Holland maintain a legation at the Vatican were made by Jonkheer van Karnebeek, Foreign Minister, in presenting estimates of his department before Parliament here to-day. He said the reasons which led to the establish of a temporary mission in Rome in 1915 were no longer applicable, now that peace has been restored. Abolition of butch representation at the Holy See would, he declared, be undesirable in the nation's interest, because the Vati-can is becoming a more important centre for diplomatic communications and in-
